Changing Careers? 7 Podcasts & Books That Can Be Helpful

This pandemic has had an impact on all of us in one way or another and for some people, it may mean that they find themselves changing careers. If this is you, maybe it is a blessing in disguise. While it is not ideal to lose your job, the job loss may be what will push you towards pursuing a career and passion that you have always wanted to pursue. Whether it is due to COVID-19 or another reason, if you find yourself in-between careers right now, here are some books and podcasts that will help equip you to make the most of this change.

- The Proximity Principal by Ramsey Personality, Ken Coleman. – Ken says that 70% of Americans are unhappy with their jobs. In his book, he talks about the people and places you need to be connected to in order to get a job you love.

- The Ken Coleman Show – on his show, Ken applies the principals he teaches in his book to people's every day life. He answers caller's questions and gives advice on how to find a job you truly enjoy.

- EntreLeadership – The EntreLeadership book is Dave Ramsey's step-by-step guide for leading your business to success. The EntreLeadership podcast is a great listen for business owners and/or those that are looking to move up in their career.

- The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership by John Maxwell – John Maxwell is a wonderful writer and teacher, especially when it comes to business and leadership. This book will be beneficial whether you are looking to be a leader or looking to grow as an employee.

- The Christy Wright Show – On her show, she discusses all kinds of personal development topics. Her book and conference, The Business Boutique, are designed to help encourage women to make money doing what they love. You can learn more about her show, book, and conference on her website, here.

- Smart Passive Income with Pat Flynn – This is a great podcast for entrepreneurs. Whether you are starting a side hustle or a full-time business, this podcast will equip you with advice and strategies.

- The Side Hustle Show – This is another great podcast for entrepreneurs. The advice and interviews you hear will help equip you to start and/or grow a business.

If you are changing jobs and you had a 401(k) with your previous employer, you are eligible to roll that over into an IRA. This can give you more flexibility and control over your money. We are always happy to discuss your situation to see if it makes sense for you to roll over your previous employer's 401(k).

SERVICE YOU CAN TRUST

In May of 2016, I took a leap of faith and left the only career I had ever known to open a Mr. Appliance franchise. Growing up on a dairy farm, I learned the value of hard work and used those same principles to build my business from scratch to where it is today. I am proud to serve my neighbors in Mansfield and the surrounding areas.

Dr. Scott Drew attended medical school at Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, where he now serves on the board.

Dr. Drew on a Medical Service Trip to Malawi

Dr. Scott Drew grew up in Maryland outside of Washington DC. He spent his summers working for his father at the gas station he managed. Dr. Drew always knew he wanted to continue his education after high school, but wasn't sure what type of career he wanted to pursue. His family doctor was a mentor to young Scott, answering questions and inspiring him to consider a career in medicine. Scott was the first member of his family to graduate from college. After completing his undergrad, he attended his mentor's alma mater, Kirksville year of residency and considering a variety of job opportunities. When he was offered a position at the Smith Clinic in Marion, OH the history buff couldn't help but leap at the opportunity to visit a town with such a rich history. On his first visit, he fell in love with the community and knew it was the perfect fit for him and his growing family. In 1992, Dr. Drew and his family made the move to Ohio and brought local dermatology services to Marion. In 2016, he opened his own practice. With the support of the community, his new venture grew and thrived. When he learned Dr. Wood in Mansfield was retiring, he saw the opportunity to expand into Richland County. Before moving in, he wanted to update the interior with a fresh and modern look. Fortunately, Dr. Drew's wife, Pam, is an interior designer and handled the renovations to make his dream office a reality. The remodeled facility on Glessner Ave features state of the art equipment in a bright, clean, and relaxing setting.

with a new perspective, a renewed love and appreciation for my job, and a passion to continue overseas medical work. My first trip was 15 years ago, and I have been on about 30 trips since." Dr. Drew has taken the experiences he's had across the globe and used the tools to both better his current practice and educate others on the need and opportunities around the world. Here at home, he begins his impact in the Mansfield area by treating all types of needs to improve the lives of his patients, whether it's a life threatening issue in a newborn, a teenager struggling with acne, a senior citizen with a skin condition, or anyone in between. Visit Dr. Drew at 480 Glessner Ave in Mansfield or call 419-526-2600 to make an appointment.

"I was absolutely overwhelmed by the disparity and lack of healthcare and water access. On one hand it broke my heart, but on the other it inspired me. I returned home with a new perspective, a renewed love and appreciation for my job, and a passion to continue overseas medical work."

College of Osteopathic Medicine. It was during a rotation in medical school where Dr. Drew found his place in dermatology. He explains, "I had a preconceived notion of what being a dermatologist looks like, but I was wrong. The attending took me under his wing and showed me the ins and the outs of the specialty. It's so much more than checking moles and treating acne. We see all ages, genders, and races. We diagnose and treat issues from urgent to surgical to elective and cosmetic. I get to experience every aspect of medicine under one specialty."

Newly married and starting a family, Dr. Drew was in his last

Dr. Drew considers his work a calling and takes great pride in building relationships with his patients to achieve the results they're looking for. Of course this includes residents of Richland County, but it also has a reach around the world. Fifteen years ago, he was approached with an opportunity to go on a medical service trip to Kenya with a group of doctors. He agreed to go, but had no idea what to expect. He reflects, "I was absolutely overwhelmed by the disparity and lack of healthcare and water access. On one hand it broke my heart, but on the other it inspired me. I returned home
